The Mile Dash Won by Tom Martin, Pearl Jennings Second.

Ten Thousand People Witness a Rating Race at Sheephead.

A Nurse Girl Soaks an Infant in Concentrated Lye.

The Mile Dash in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The rain fell in perfect torrents just prior to the time set for calling the first race, but in spite of the fact fully 10,000 people assembled at Washington Park Club grounds to witness the trials of speed. The track was a sea of mud and water, and just as the jockeys weighed a second shot set in, and it was necessary to again postpone the race. It was a quarter after 3 o'clock when the first race was run, and then a drizzling rain was falling.

The first race—inaugural dash, for all ages, one mile—started: Lady Wayward, David Kenny, Hertog, Explorer, Boot-black, Kosciuszka, Viper, Berlin, Tom Martin and Pearl Jennings. Bootblack and Kosciuszka alternated as leaders the greater part of the route, but Tom Martin came through in the stretch and won by a length; Pearl Jennings second, and Lady Wayward third; time, 1:34.

What the Democrats Say in New York.

New York, June 27.—The feeling here among the Tammany men on the President's cabinet appointments is decidedly bitter.
Corner Martin, one of the leaders of the organization, said, when asked how he liked the men: "It is a crying shame, and the President has made a gross mistake. He has never done anything for Democracy, and in appointing him the President has insulted Democrats. They all feel about the same, though some pretend indifference, and say they never heard of Hadden and do not know anything about him. The Irving Hall people are less disturbed, but several of them use faint praise to express their feelings. Of course the county Democracy men are jubilant.

A 12-Year-Old Girl's Crime.

BALTIMORE, S. C., June 27.—Rebecca Samuels, 12 years old, has been convicted of the murder of Lucy Graham, a six weeks' old infant that she was nursing. She soaked the child in a pot of concentrated lye. The only cause for the crime is that the prisoner killed the child to escape daily nursing it.
This is the second crime of the same kind she has committed within two years. She appeared to be totally unconscious of what was going on during the trial, and twice went to sleep in the dock with her head resting on her hands. She has an innocent face, and is not apparently in the slightest degree affected by the result of her trial. She has not been sentenced.

Chinamen Wending Eastward.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 27.—The exodus of Chinamen from California to the East has begun. A number of celebrated gamblers through Union Station yesterday. This morning there were thirty-eight of them on their way from San Francisco to New York.
They seemed to have been fairly prosperous in the West, as they were all dressed in native costume. One of them said there were too many of his countrymen in California, and that a great many of them had decided to try the Eastern States. They said: The Mexican man is down on them in California, and those in the East receive fair treatment.

Burning an "Old Ironsides."

BOSTON, June 27.—The old United States steamer "Niagara" was bound to Apple Island yesterday to be burned for her metal, and probably will light up the harbor for several nights to come. She has had an eventful history. She was built before the war and helped to lay the first Atlantic cable. She conveyed Minister Anson Burlingame to China, pursued the "Alabama," and was otherwise serviceable during the war. She was originally of 5,000 tons burden, but was cut down. At one time she was considered the fastest steamer in the United States navy.

To-Day's Stocks and Finance.

New York, June 27.—Stocks were weak at the opening this morning, owing to trending in a decline of $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ for most of the active list. Pacific Mail leading. This was soon checked, however, and the market became very dull and then steady and strong and has continued, the early losses being recovered during the hour. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and strong, prices generally a shade above the opening. Pacific Mail, however, has recovered only $\frac{1}{4}$.

The Mexican Editors in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The Mexican editors arrived here by special train from St. Louis this morning. A reception committee, headed by Mayor Harrison, met the party near Bloomington, and Mr. Harrison made a speech of welcome. The visitors will be taken to witness the races at the Washington Park Club grounds this afternoon, and will attend the theater to-night. To-morrow forenoon they will attend divine service at the Roman Catholic cathedral, when Archbishop Feehan will officiate.

NARLAT, N. B., June 27.—The financial crisis has substantially passed, the new bank cashier having arrived by the last steamer from London, and the public bank having resumed business with the funds held in England. The deficit in bank amounts is about $170,000.

Notes on Cablegrams Reduced.

Bennett and the cable companies controlled by the Western Union Telegraph Company have announced that their rates for foreign business at Chicago have been reduced to business.

John McCullough Daily Growing Worse.

New York, June 27.—John McCullough returned from Philadelphia yesterday. His friends say he is growing worse so rapidly that you can see by day the increased weakness of his mind.

Millions of Surplus Money.

New York, June 27.—The weekly statement of the assets of the banks shows a reserve income of $854,000. The banks now hold $63,394,000 in excess of legal requirements.

Ten Years for a Stinking Fish.

New York, June 27.—Jas. D. Fish, late president of the Marine Bank, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in Auburn prison this morning, by Judge Benedict, in the United States Court.

THE OFFICIAL PLUMS.

Mr. Burdard Is Bounced, and Dr.
Kimball Is Appointed.

Various Opinions on the New York Appointments of Cleveland.

Cleveland Bounces Burdard.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The President today suspended Horatio C. Burdard, of Illinois, as Director of the Mint, and appointed James B. Kimball, of Pennsylvania, in his stead.

Dr. James P. Kimball, of Bethlehem, Pa., today appointed Director of the Mint, is Professor of Economic Geology in Lehigh University. He is a mining engineer and metallurgist by profession. He was educated at Harvard University, and at the Mining School of Freiberg, Saxony, receiving the degree of Ph.D. from the University of Gottingen in 1877. He has held appointments on several State and Government surveys.

During the war he served in the army of New York as Assistant Adjutant General, on the staff of General McClellan, Burnside, Hooker and Meade successively. He is now president of the Everett Iron Company of Pennsylvania, and is well known in New York, where he has an office.

Mr. Burdard said to-day he preferred that the change should be made in that way rather than to resign in the face of charges of inefficiency and mismanagement which have been made against him.

Relief for the Cholera Sufferers.

MADRID, June 27.—Senor Canovas del Castello, Prime Minister, and Senor Romero Y.
R. Robledo, Minister of the Interior, have returned to Madrid from Murcia. They reported Murcia in a lamentable condition of misery and terror. They distributed among the suffering $20,000, including King Al-fonso's gift of $5,000.

EARL SPENCER'S FAREWELL.

The Victory of Ireland Leaves Dublin for London To-Day.

DUBLIN, June 27.—There was a much larger crowd of prominent people at the farewell reception of Earl Spencer to-day than was anticipated. The rooms were so densely thronged that it was difficult for those present to move about with any degree of comfort. The Earl, in the presence of the assembled guests, knighted Secretary Kaye and Commissioner Greene for the part they took in making the recent visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Ireland a success.

Every precaution was taken to prevent the Invincibles from perpetrating an outrage, and the packages destined for the Castle were carefully examined before being conveyed to the castle. The Earl, for four years might contain dynamite. A large force of police was stationed in the court yard and numerous detectives in full dress suits mingled with the assembled crowd. The streets through which the Earl's car will en route to London, are lined with soldiers.
As the Earl is about starting on his homeward journey, the sun is shining brightly.

A Rebellion Against Chinese Rule.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27.—Advices from Tashkent, in Asiatic Russia, show that the rebellion against Chinese rule, in Chinese Turkestan, is spreading in Kashgar. The laborers have risen. Last accounts received from Kashgar state that the insurgents had killed all the Chinese officials and native overseers in the city, and had cut off all communication with the interior of China.

Domina, 5,000 of them were killed. The remains of the fallen soldiers were found in 200 Nicaraguans under Talavera who was wounded. They fought for thirty-two hours, then cut their way through Menendino's line, losing 300 killed and wounded, and carried the remainder into La Union in a good order.

Universal Suffrage in Great Britain.

At the general election which will take place in Great Britain and Ireland this fall the new franchise act, which is destined to be regarded as the greatest change in Great Britain, will go into effect. The Tories and other opponents of the bill have denounced it as calculated to debauch the suffrage, turn the Government over to the people, and destroy the very foundations of the empire. Perhaps it will, but if the last prediction shall prove to have been correct it will be the people of the empire themselves who will decree the changes that may be made.

Mr. Gladstone's bill practically completes universal suffrage in Great Britain. Of course a great many men will be barred out for one reason or another, but it will now be possible under the laws for almost any subject of the crown to secure the right of voting. The bill will go into effect. The Tories and other opponents of the bill have
people, and destroy the very foundations
of the empire. Perhaps it will, but if the
last prediction shall prove to have been correct it will be the people of the empire them-
made.

"DEAD GONE" ON ACTRESSES.

The Suppers and Diamonds a Rich Southerner Used to Put Up.

A man with a history, says a Nashville dispatch of June 23d, was buried here yesterday. Before the war one of the richest, if not the richest, planter in the South was Harry Hill. He was known all along the Mississippi and Ohio rivers from New Orleans to Pittsburg. His plantations extended for miles along the river, and were filled by thousands of slaves. When he died his estate was worth about $3,000,000. His only son inherited this vast wealth. Like all young men of that day who had rich fathers he was given the benefit of a European education, and for years traveled the continent with a private tutor. He had been bountifully supplied with money, but when his father's death threw all his wealth into his possession his extravagance knew no bounds. He was a rich Southerner, he had carried letters which placed him on terms of intimacy with the nobility. Few men of title could boast of as ample a fortune, and none could exceed him in idleness. It was in the theatrical world, however, that he attracted most attention. The leading lights of the Parisian stage were sage to claim his friendship, for it meant valuable presents. Costly gifts of diamonds and jewelry to some favored artists were a common thing, while his extravagant dinners astonished even the gay French capital.
One supper in particular which he gave to the art world of Paris is said to have cost about $8,000 and $10,000. With Patti and other famous singers he was on terms of intimacy, and in his later days nothing gave him more pleasure than to recount anecdotes of his social intercourse with them. Few men were more competent as critics in matters of music and art. Even his colossal fortune could not stand such excesses, and when the war came it swept away the remnants. From a millionaire Major Jimmie Dick Hill "descended to a dependent on his relatives for absolute necessities of life. In his wild career he met and married an actress, an Italian lady and a married woman. She was a Catholic and about three years ago instituted proceedings in New York for a separation.
The case attracted great attention at the time and column after column of the daily press was filled with accounts of Major Hill's extravagance. He became a writer for the press, particularly those of sporting proclivities. His nom de plume "Climax," in the Turf, Field and Farm made him familiar to turf men all over the country. Nearly two years ago he received one day a telegram stating that a gentleman had died suddenly in Memphis and left him his sole heir. This proved to be his old tutor, on whom he had spent thousands while in Europe. The bequest amounted to about $40,000 in property in this country and England, and placed him again in comfortable circumstances. Major Hill was a familiar figure on the streets of Nashville and was exceedingly interesting in conversation. He would never express regret that he had squandered his millions, but was exceedingly bitter when speaking of friends in his prosperity who had deserted him when his money was gone.
